

AWSL Summer Programs 2024

Providing opportunities that support and increase the academic and social success of all students.
S = School Team, M = Mixed Groups, H = Hybrid of School Teams, and Mixed

Mission Peak Leadership Camp at EWU Creating dynamic opportunities in the 509!

Mission Peak focuses on established and emerging leaders from within the school. Delegates will experience opportunities to grow as individuals, as a team, and with others who lead similarly in their respective schools. Our curriculum focuses on a growth mindset, self and social awareness, inclusion, and developing community and relationships.

Mission Peak: H | July 22nd – 27th

La Cima Bilingual Leadership at CWU Empowering Latinx students to lead

La Cima (The Summit) impacts leadership and identity development to Latinx youth. Delegates are equipped with the skills to create positive change in their schools and communities. All Content is delivered in English and Spanish, leveraging bicultural skills and affirming delegates' self-worth and bilingual assets.

La Cima: M | July 10th – July 14th

Mt. Triumph at Cispus Mt. Triumph is just the start...

Mt. Triumph focuses on students who have a hands-on role in creating the climate and culture for their schools. Our curriculum centers around student voice, inclusion, and empowerment.

Mt. Triumph: S | July 6th – 11th

2024 Specialized Bus Routes:

Specialized bus routes will be made available for the following camps.

- Southwest Washington – Mt. Triumph and Mt. Rainier
- Pierce County – Mt. Olympus
- Seattle – Mt. Olympus
- Kent/Auburn – Mt. Olympus
- Peninsula – Mt. Rainier
- KingCo – Mt. Baker
- WESCO – Mt. Triumph
- Eastern Washington (509 Area) – Mission Peak
- Southeast Washington – Mission Peak

Mt. Olympus at Cispus Combining inclusion, equity, and social justice

Mt. Olympus focuses on school teams or individuals who hold leadership positions on their campus. Mt. Olympus strives to create a camp that reflects and grows the diverse population of leaders in WA. Our curriculum focuses on equity, diversity, effective communication, self-reflection, diversity of leadership styles, and exploring your "Why?"

Mt. Olympus: M | July 12th – July 17th

Mt. Baker at Cispus Where growth mindset meets influence

Mt. Baker focuses on student leaders and student leadership teams. Our curriculum centers around character, Humor, Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs, project planning, and team building. Every delegate is on the stage at least once during the week.

Mt. Baker: S | July 18th – July 23rd

Mt. Rainier at Cispus Preparing the One to Empower the Many

Mt. Rainier focuses on elected and non-elected students who want to make a difference in their school and community. Our curriculum focuses on inclusion, individual growth, group project skills, teamwork, and opportunities to exchange ideas and network with delegates from other schools and communities.

Mt. Rainier: M & H | July 24th – July 29th

Mt. Adams at Cispus Servant Leadership at the heart

Mt. Adams focuses on high school students interested in pursuing their purpose and learning the why behind their actions as leaders within their schools. Our curriculum focuses on servant leadership, head, heart, hands, the Eight Essentials, listening, communication, and exploring your "Why?"

Mt. Adams: M | July 30th – August 4th

