What is the mission of Deaf Teen Leadership Camp?

The Deaf Teen Leadership camp has four key goals:

- Empower Deaf and Hard of Hearing youth
- Foster personal growth
- Encourage confidence
- Create personal and community change

What happens at DTL Camp? Through an interactive, weeklong camp experience, students learn and practice essential skills. Workshops relate to character building, leadership, communication, integrity, self-identity, advocacy and teamwork. Students experience the Cispus challenge course, participate in Deaf culture enrichment activities and meet other Deaf and hard of hearing youth from high schools across Washington. The program is facilitated and supervised by staff of the Association of Washington School Principals.

Who should attend?

Deaf, Hard of Hearing, Deafblind, and Deaf with Disabilities youth entering grades 9-12

Who is a sponsor?

All delegates require a sponsor. A sponsor is a teacher, counselor or school administrator who recommends the student as a delegate to Deaf Teen Leadership Camp.

What is the cost?

The cost is $325 per delegate. Reserve your spot for $50 while you submit a request for scholarship as limited financial assistance may be available. Charter bus service is available for an additional fee. Students can also be transported to camp by a parent or carpool. No student drivers are allowed.

How do I register for DTL?
